Sor-ry, dear, what's the use no ex-cuse, All of your pleed-ing's in vain.
Hur-ry up, run a-way, don't de-lay, this is a dan-ger-ous place.
You have lost— your chance, Gone is our— ro-mance.
Some-one else— will be, Here at half-past three.
Sor-ry, dear, Some-one else now is here, Tak-ing your place to re-
Some-one who does-n't care much for you, May change the smile on your right but now you know you were wrong.— You should have known the dan - ger when you left me be - hind — 'Cause I'm the kind—

— that must have love all the time. — I need-ed com - pany, a lit - tle sym - path - y, A hug or two when one is blue will help things a - long. — I met some - bod - y with a heart and soul, He squeezed my hand — and then I lost con - trol, — You went a - way too far; and stayed a - way too long! — You long!
